Alessandro Puccinelli divides his time between Tuscany, Lisbon, and the southern coast of Portugal. He often takes a break from the humdrum of life in his motorhome hideaway (his van in the sea), chasing storms of the ocean.

The artist patiently waits for the perfect moment to capture the fearsome waves that collide into the coastlines moody sky, together creating mother nature's fury in spectacular form. His contemporary photography captures the essence of the sea and sky that immerses you in the fascinating depths of mystery, magic, and beauty.
